

The Humanarium Project

As a California Non-Profit Corporation, the Humanarium Project has as its mission statement or purpose, Environmental Enhancement. The following flow chart shows some of the planning and execution of various portions of the project.

Each path taken represents a skill that the originator of this project brings to the organization. One hundred percent of the income derived from any of these endeavors is automatically donated to the project to help make this a successful organization.

